

ERA-NET EuroNanoMed II

EuroNanoMed II

EuroNanoMed II (ENM II) is a part of the ERA-NET scheme which was established as a platform for funding agencies and ministries, to foster joint activities and programmes coordinating high quality research across national borders, thus reducing the fragmentation in research in Nanomedicine in Europe.

20 partners

from 17 countries/
regions

Funded through the European Commission's 7th Framework Programme from November 2012 to October 2016

EuroNanoMed II builds on the achievements of its predecessor, EuroNanoMed I. Through 3 joint transnational calls for proposals (JTCs), EuroNanoMed I granted

24 transnational research projects on nanomedicine

with a total funding of €25M from its partner organizations and an additional €21M from self-funding of the participating project partners.

Aims of ENM II joint transnational calls

- To support translational research proposals that combine innovative approaches (basic, clinical, industrial) in the field of Nanomedicine.
- To encourage and enable transnational collaboration between public and private research groups. The participation of SMEs is encouraged.

JTC 2013

Launched in December 2012. Topics covered:

- Regenerative medicine
- Diagnostics
- Targeted delivery systems

JTC 2014

The topic is also planned to be around the three sub-topics: targeted drug delivery, diagnostics and regenerative medicine, which are the priorities of the ETP Nanomedicine.

Procedures will be optimized based on previous experience.

JTC 2015 & JTC 2016

Priorities will be defined in a workshop in 2014.
